

Conveyancing Forms and Procedures

This source book and training guide is intended for conveyancing support staff. It sets out the mechanics of the conveyancing process in plain language and gives step-by-step instructions and supporting information for almost 50 forms. It explains in detail when and how to use each form, where to send it and when to expect a reply. This edition has been revised and re-designed to improve accessibility and navigation. It provides coverage of: the National Conveyancing Protocol (TransAction 2001); Land Registry forms and the Enquiries of Local Authority form; and developments, including a list of relevant websites and an overview of initiatives from the Land Registry and the Law Society.
