Book Two in the Human Vampire series. When the famous artist and self-proclaimed king of the Vampires, Lohr Varius, brings his art collection to the gallery where Kate Miller works, he awakens a desire in her that has nothing to do with art and everything to do with Living Vampires. That desire leads her to underground blood bar, La Luxure, where she finds herself inexplicably drawn to the cocky bartender claiming to be the real deal. But it isn't long before she discovers not everyone is as they seem, and as the crimson-eyed bartender warns, not everyone is safe. Warning: This book contains adult content and is not suitable for readers under 18.
