Something is stirring amongst the trees, and its very horny. In If you go down to the woods Sally takes Mark to the wood at the bottom of her parents garden, where she used to run around naked. Whilst a Bicycle Race stops being competitive and quickly becomes erotic. They walked down the garden from the bungalow. The river runs around a couple of sides, and theres a fence. With the motorway its completely enclosed and private. As Sally climbed over the stile Mark couldnt help but glance up the wide legs of her culottes, just catching a glance of her knickers. Sally stood on the other side of the stile, smiling back, I used to come down here and take my clothes off and run around naked. I was only caught a couple of times. Really? How old were you when you did this? The last time was last summer. I think its time to do it again. Catch me. Sally ran off into the wood, disappearing behind a tree. Mark was over the stile in a bound. When he rounded the tree Sally was nowhere to be seen, but her culottes had been dropped on the ground. There was a rustle, and Mark caught sight of Sallys black and white striped top and long legs as she skipped between smaller trees. She knew her way through the trees- it was her wood after all- he had to bumble through hoping not to trip over a root. He cut across toward the area she had been heading for. Up ahead a fallen trunk leant against a much larger oak. Mark jumped up and grabbed one of the oaks branches, swinging over the deadwood. He tripped when he landed, tumbled and came to a halt staring at Sallys knickers, which hung from a branch. She was across a small clearing, smiling at him around a tree. With a giggle she disappeared from view.
